Prayers of the people and the Lord's Prayer

All Our God, who is in heaven, holy is Your name;

Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.

Amen.

Communion

At Kensington Community Church, we practice an "open table." All who desire to take communion with us are welcome to do so, regardless of religious affiliation, life circumstances, or anything else. This is God's table, and we wouldn't dare turn anyone away.

Open and Affirming Statement

In 2010, KCC declared ourselves "Open and Affirming," or welcoming to members of the gay and lesbian community as well as to people from all walks of life. In this way, we seek to include and embrace people of any creed, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identification, political view, military status, mental or physical ability, age, economic situation, or family circumstance. We invite all to share in the life, leadership, ministry, fellowship, worship, and blessings of Kensington Community Church. Our spiritual foundations support peace, justice, and equality as part of God's unconditional love. We pledge to continue expanding our views and attitudes of what it means to share with God in the unfolding of being Open and Affirming.

Safe Church Statement

Our congregation is committed to creating a sanctuary, or a safe environment, for the children, youth and adults who gather in our midst and in our buildings. It is up to each of us who worships, learns, works, volunteers, or socializes at KCC to create a community that is free of discrimination, harassment, exploitation, or intimidation. For more about our Safe Church policy, see kensingtonucc.com, or ask for a copy at the church office.
